COLONEL D. P. DYER FOR THE SENATE

An Attempt Being Made to Over- President, Kerens, Akins and Post come Evil Effects of Lobby "Agreement."

Unless present signs fail, a conference of prominent country Republicans will be called within a few weeks to consider the advisability of bringing Colonel D. P. Dyer out for the minority nomination for United States Senator. The movement is fostered by a few men who are opposed to the dic-tation of the lobby in the State Conven-dorard Dyer for the nomination and have instructed their legislative nominees to vote for him if they are elected. Significantly enough, the countles, Shelby and Pike, are verwhelmingly Democratic, so that the Kerens forces fear nothing from them.

In reply to this it is said that James L. Minnis showed a typewritten copy of a Mathan Frank accompanied Colonel Resolution asking Colonel Dier to become a Kerens to Washington, but took no part in resolution asking Colonel Dyer to become a candidate for the United States Senate and requesting Republican nominees for the General Assembly to vote for his election. The bluff worked, and Kerens did not ask for an indorsement. At the present time Colonel Kerens is maintaining headquarters to secure the nomination of Republicans who will be friendly, if elected, to the General Assem-bly. One of the old lieutenants of Kerens is in charge of the work in connection with this post-convention campaign. Colonel Kerens himself is in the East, looking after patronage and business interests.

Akins is keeping out of the fight. He is Official Forecast Announced for mid to feel satisfied with his re-election and if Kerens can secure the nomination the State chairman will not object. NEGRO GIRLS NOT ADMITTED.

State Industrial Home Has No Separate Accommodations.

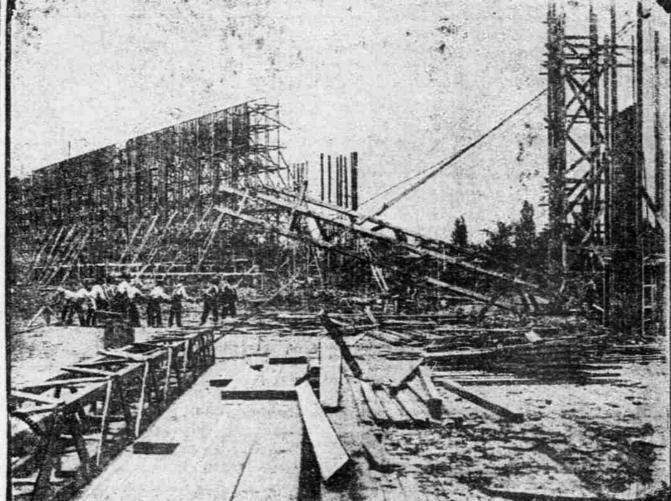

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Chillicothe, Mo., July 3.-At a meeting of the Board of Control of the State Industrial Home for Girls the board took up the question of admitting negro girls to the institution. After the matter had been fully discussed and considered, it was decided that the board could not, with its present facilities admit them, as there were no separate accommodations for them.

The board will probably ask the next Legislature to provide an extra building to be used acclusively by negro girls.

Recently Judge Douglass of St. Louis sentenced a negro girl. Hattle Jones, to the home, and she was brought here by a Deputy Sheriff, but was refused admission. Judge Douglass has since threatened to compel the home under the law to take the girl, but the board will not alter its present position. BOY KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF TANK ON SODA WAGON.

Paul McCloskey, Eleven Years Old, Thrown Twenty Feet Into the Air.

Paul McCloskey, II years old, a nephew of John McCloskey, president of the St. Louis Carbonating Company, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon by the exdosion of a soda tank on one of the wagons of the company on which the child was riding. The force of the explosion threw the boy twenty feet in the air. His right thigh was fractured and he received in-ternal injuries from which he died several hours later. Clyde McCann, the driver, was also cut and bruised.

The accident occurred shortly after 2 o'clock opposite No. 162 North Jefferson avenue. The boy had been on an errand in South St. Louis and was on his way to his that the National League of Republican Clubs should hold their convention in Ochome, No. 3125 Cass avenue.

When he reached the corner of Jefferson avenue and Gamble street he saw the wagon and climbed up beside the driver for a ride. The wagon had proceeded but a short distance when, from some unknown cause, one of the tanks used for charging soda synhous with which the wagon was stopped a couple of hours on his way to New York. The worst thing about the Philippine business is the pretense on the part of our Republican friends that they are acting up-Republican friends that they are acting up-on high moral considerations, when every intelligent man knows that they are ac-tuated by commercial metives only. Their leader in the Senate. Senator Hanna, is continually quoting what President McKin-ley said to him about public matters; and we have had a sert of political seance in the Senate on every occasion when a debate has occurred, either on a political question or the Nicaragua Canal or the ship sub-sidy.

No Morals in It. "All the world knows that Mr. McKinley declared in his speech at Charlottesville, as he went to the Pacific Coust, and afterwards, in his speech at Buffalo, just before his assassination, that we must hold the Philippine Archipelago as a base of distribution for our surplus products in the Orient. The moral aspect of the question is used simply to fortify the intention on the part of the administration to hold the Philippine Islands for commercial purposes.

"The Republican party is like the Reverend Doctor Chadband in Bleak House," who congregation as an object lesson, and when Jo begged to be let alone the Reverend Doctor Chadband said: "I will not let you alone, I intend to humanine and christianize you in spite of yourself."

"It is useless, however, to protest against the Philippine policy now. If the Republicans can continue the high pressure of the boom which has given greater prices to our manufacturers and farmers, and caused an amount of circulation of money in this country hitherto unparalleled, they will carry the next presidential election. But 10 man living can predict with certainty what will be the condition in 1994, and it is therefore useless to conjecture what will be the result of the next presidential campaign.

Republicans Allied With Trusts.

Republicans Allied With Trusts. "The Republican party is unquestionably in alliance with the trusts. No intelligent man can doubt this fact after looking at the record. In not one single instance have they failed to show themselves the friends they failed to show themselves the friends of the great trusts. At this session of Congress they have furnished conclusive evidence of their intention not to attack the trusts in any way. In the Fifty-sixth Congress, when the House of Representatives sent to the Senate a bill strengthening what is known as the Sherman antitrust law, there being but one vote against the bill in the House, the Republicans in the Senate, by a party vote, postponed action on the bill until after the presidential election. Their leaders declared that at the next ression, beginning in December, 1901, a bill would be reported from the Judiciary Committee and considered by the Senate. Nothing of the sort was done, and nothing has been done in that direction at the session just closed. just closed.

'The Sugar Trust has been powerful enough to defeat the passage of the House bill removing the differential on refined sugar, and the bill known as the 'outrage' whisky bill has been killed in the Finance Committee of the Senate because the Republicans did not want to give the Whisky Trust what it wanted until the trust had been squeezed for campaign purposes.

No Advantage in Carrying House. "A great many Democrats are solicitous about the congressional elections in November, but I am not so clear myself that any important results will come from carrying the House. The Republicans will have the presidency of the Senate by twenty majority, and our control of the House would practically amount to very little. Of course, a Democratic House could defeat any objectionable legislation, but it must be remembered that the Republicans have already effected all they desired, and they would certainly, after losing the House in November, rush a subsidy bill through that body in the short session. If we should carry the House and then financial revulsion comes upon the country in 1896, or before that time, the Republicans would declare that this was the result of a Democratic victory in the popular branch of Cangress, while the possession of the House by the Democratic as I have said, would amount to very little, practically. "I am very sorry that my honest conviction compelled me to differ with a large majority of my Democratic constituents on the subject of electing United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, but after deliberate investigation and reflection I could do nothing else than oppose this movement.

Evansville, Ind., July 3.—This was the hottest day of the season here. The mercury went to 55 in the shade. There was one prostration reported, that of Thomas Rogers, who is in a serious condition.

EDWARD NOLAN FINED $25-Edward Nolan, No. 519 Biddle street, was fined $25 by Judge Tracy in the Dayton Street. Police Court yesterday, on complaint of his wife, Lottie. She said her husband returned home in an ugly mood the evening previous and pulled the table cover off the table, thereby upsetting a dish of soup into the lap of her mother. Officer Dumont arrested Nolan.

Weak Lungs

Inherited, perhaps. Natural tendency to take cold. Possibly a case or two of consumption in the family. Then don't neglect your coughs and colds. Heal your throat and strengthen your lungs with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if he can give you better advice.

"We have had Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in our family for many years. For throat and lung troubles it always helps."- Frank Rogers, Greenwood, Wis.
